

Effective Date: 16th September 2025

Welcome to Raccoon Tycoon's Greater Sydney Adventuring Guild!

Thank you for your interest in joining our Dungeons & Dragons adventures. Below are our Session types, rates, and membership details to help you plan your journey.

Join us for epic adventures, creative storytelling, and a chance to explore Dungeons & Dragons in a friendly, supportive environment!

Membership: $10/month per player ($5 discount to all Sessions)

Insurance: Flat $5 fee per Session (Certificate of Currency provided upon request)

Session Rates:

Session Type	Public/Private Venue	Private Residence
Adventurer's League	$20/player	$30/player
Homebrew (My Story)	$25/player	$35/player
Homebrew (Your Story)	$30/player	$40/player

*Introductory and Gameplay Sessions are not double charged when booked together as a single Session.

Introductory Session (2 hrs)

- Character creation & backstory development
- Introduction to D&D Beyond app
- Setting Above Table rules (topics that may be unsafe, triggering, or inappropriate)

Note: No actual gameplay occurs in this Session.*

Gameplay Sessions (2–4 hrs)

- Play Dungeons & Dragons using your created characters
- Follow agreed in-game and Above Table rules
- Introductory and Gameplay Sessions can be combined for a 4–6 hour adventure.

What is Adventurer's League?

Adventurer's League (AL) is the official playstyle created by Wizards of the Coast and uses the Logsheet system. If you choose this option, I will teach you about logsheets and provide a blank copy for all players.

What is Homebrew?

A homebrew campaign or one-shot is a fully made-up story. It can be ad lib or a pre-written adventure, none of which are official Wizards of the Coast content. If you have a story for me to run, I will tailor it to your ideas; otherwise, I will bring my own adventure designed for the players.

What is a Private Venue?

A Private Venue is any location not readily accessible to the public. Schools, library conference rooms, gaming clubs, or otherwise a venue where we have a space dedicated to our event.